EUROPEAN HERITAGE LABEL

LABEL DU PATRIMOINE EUROPÉEN

ROBERT SCHUMAN'S HOUSE

is the place where Schuman wrote the first draft of his Declaration known as the 'Declaration of 9 May 1950'. The document paved the way towards post-war European integration. Schuman is recognised today as one of the Founding Fathers of the European Union.
It features on the European Union's list of European Heritage sites because of the significant role it has played in the history and culture of Europe.

LA MAISON DE ROBERT SCHUMAN

abrite le bureau dans lequel il rédigea la première version de sa célèbre «Déclaration du 9 mai 1950». Ce document a ouvert la voie à l'intégration européenne après la Seconde Guerre mondiale. Schuman est aujourd'hui considéré comme l'un des Pères fondateurs de l'Union européenne. Cette maison est inscrite au patrimoine européen de l'Union européenne en raison de son rôle prépondérant dans l'histoire et la culture de l'Europe.

COMMISSION DECISION

of 10 March 2015

designating the sites awarded the European Heritage Label in 2014

(2015/C 83/03)

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Decision No 1194/2011/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 November 2011 establishing a European Union action for the European Heritage Label [1], and in particular Article 14(1) thereof,

Whereas:

(1) On 17 December 2014, the European panel transmitted to the Commission its report regarding the selection process of sites for the attribution of the European Heritage Label in 2014 and, taking into account its recommendations, the Commission should designate the sites to be awarded the label.

(2) In accordance with Article 15 of Decision No 1194/2011/EU, each site awarded the label should be monitored on a regular basis in order to ensure that it continues to meet the criteria and that it respects the project and work plan submitted in its application for the selection,
